Beyond the Struggle: Tips and Strategies for Low-Income Students
Tuesday, August 30
1:30–3:30 p.m.

University Center, 63 Fifth Avenue, UL 102

Are you worried about covering your tuition bill this semester? Concerned about making ends meet to pay for meals and your MetroCard? Are you the first in your family to go to college? Are you on your own in financing your education? Come meet students who have navigated financial challenges at The New School and learn tips that will help you address your financial concerns. Build community with people who can relate to balancing a full-time course load with a job and an unpaid internship. The struggle is real—let's push through together. Lunch is served. RSVP to studev@newschool.edu and include "Beyond the Struggle" in the subject line.
